

Contents

CUTTING TO THE CHASE.....
FOREWORD
BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION
PART 1 – GETTING EDUCATED
Chapter 1: The value of knowledge - what you should learn, and why.....
Chapter 2: The lure of industry and the crown of academe: Selling your soul--Or just renting it? ..
Chapter 3: The dance of mentoring
Chapter 4: Nagging emotions – coping with the baggage of your early career.....
Chapter 5: On being alone
Chapter 6: Patterns, not points: The psychophysical way of thinking.....
PART 2 – MEETING OTHERS.....
Chapter 7: What to do at professional conference
Chapter 8: It’s your turn: Seducing the audience – are you a minimalist or a maximalist.....
Chapter 9: On professional societies, or, if you want to be alone, then join the crowd
PART 3 – PLAYING WITH OTHERS.....
Chapter 10: Keys to the kingdom – practical steps to a moral life
Chapter 11: Karma, character, and the law of ‘what goes around COMES around’
Chapter 12: Playing with others with whom you work
Chapter 13: Becoming an agent of change – realpolitik and strategies.....
Chapter 14: Boo hoo – my boss (professor, colleague, post-doc) doesn’t like me.....
Chapter 15: Playing together vs. competing: A story of two corporate functions.....
PART 4 – ESTABLISHING YOU AND MAKING YOUR MARK
Chapter 16: First order problems, second order problems, and the payouts.....
Chapter 17: Learning to think.....
Chapter 18: Collaborating in research and in writing
Chapter 19: Mechanics – writing and presenting to be read and understood
Chapter 20: Dealing with reviews, reviewers, editors, and other shenanigans.....
Chapter 21: Avoid getting high jacked during your presentation.....
Chapter 22: What you write and how you write – mirroring your career.....
Chapter 23: Do not let the perfect be the enemy of the good
PART 5 –END NOTES
Chapter 24: Moving on
Chapter 25: Reflections on becoming a fossil in a sedimentary layer.....	